Hunt for spare toys, books or games you no longer need

When Jesus fed a crowd he made sure the leftovers were collected and shared. Ask a parent or carer if there are any 'leftovers' your household could donate to charity.

WEDNESDAY Think about what – or who – is most important in your life

Adverts can make us think buying things will make us happy. Ask yourself, your friends or family what really matters to them in life. Are the answers things that can be bought?
